

Guilty: Liberal Victims and Their Assault on America

by Ann Coulter

Crown Publishing, 2008, 311 pages

(Page 13) The establishment media are the most powerful force in the nation and yet they are constantly claiming to speak up for the little guy and berating those whom they call the powerful.

How the media report stories, which stories they report, and which they don't report create the universe of accepted facts.

(Page 15) Fox News has never been caught promoting a fraud---unlike CBS(Bush National Guard story), ABC (tobacco industry report), NBC (exploding GM trucks), CNN (Tailwind), and MSNBC (Keith Olbermann).

(Page 18) ..., Fairness Doctrine does not apply to TV stations, newspapers, magazines, or Hollywood movies. Only on the radio is the government required to enforce fairness .

(Page 32) Even with greedy liberals Krazy-Gluing their wallets shut, Americans give more to charity than the citizens of any other country.

(Page 35) There is no better example of phony victims who are actually victimizers than single mothers.

We have single mothers because more than a million women choose to have children out of wedlock every year in American,By their own choices, they consign their children to starting life with second-class status.

(Page 37) Charles Murray says, Illegitimacy is the single most important social problem of our time----more important than crime, drugs, poverty, illiteracy, welfare or homelessness because it drives everything else.

(Page 39) Sixteen percent of college graduates will get divorced, compared with 46 percent of high school dropouts, despite the fact that high school dropouts are less likely to get married in the first place.

(Page 40) For half a century, American welfare policy was premised on the insane idea that being poor causes single motherhood and crime, rather than that single motherhood causes criminal behavior and poverty.

(Page 41) Having money doesn't make you middle-class. The secret to being middle-class in America is: Keep your knees together before marriage and graduate from high school. That's it!

(Page 45) Hollywood movers and shakers are as rich as any oil company CEO, but the role they love to play the most is victim.

(Page 57) According to the U.S. Justice Department crime statistics, domestic abuse is virtually nonexistent for married women living with their husbands.

(Page 69) All sentient human beings know that single motherhood is ruinous for children, but meanwhile, the mainstream media and Hollywood studios are constantly issuing propaganda about the joys and triumphs of single motherhood.

(Page 72) What liberals mean when they complain about attacks is simply that it is unfair to point out the things Democrats believe.

(Page 95) Any facts about Obama were portrayed as vicious smears----unless they were being cited as reasons to vote for him.

(Page 109) ..., negative ads tend to contain far more facts than positive ads. But actual information about the candidates is exactly what liberals do not want.

(Page 137) Republican opposition research mostly consists of trying to publicize relevant information the press refuses to report, inasmuch as the entire American press corps works tirelessly to unearth the scandals of Republicans, while aggressively suppressing Democratic scandals.

The media believe they should be the arbiters of what counts as a scandal.

(Page 177) I just want a Republican who is not constantly apologizing to liberals.

Why do Republicans never learn? They will never get credit for apologizing to the endless stream of fake liberal victims.

(Page 193) American establishment media just go about creating fake news stories and then demanding that the rest of us take them seriously.

(Page 196) No questions ever linger around Democratic scandals because no questions are ever asked.

(Page 198) Liberals think gay men should be Boy Scout troop leaders but are outraged that a gay man could be a Republican.

(Page 204) Concerning the firing of U.S. Attorneys in 2006, Bush should have said, We did it, it was political, and there s nothing you can do about it. Instead, the administration stupidly apologized for firing its own employees,

(Page 206) To paraphrase Will Rogers, every time the Clinton Administration made a joke, it was a law, and every time they made a law, it was a joke.

(Page 211) After the media have flogged an issue to death, they direct pollsters to ask people whether they are concerned about the calamity being broadcast in headlines across the nation.

(Page 219) With McCarthyism, they vilified an American patriot to hide the Democratic Party s shameful collaboration with Soviet spies.

(Page 224) The number-one rule with liberals is: Whatever they do is courageous, no matter how blatantly power-grabbing, whoring, or publicity-seeking it is.

(Page 234) What is the point of liberals railing about Enron s Ken Lay----who was a big Clinton backer, by the way---when the Democratic Party is the wholly owned subsidiary of slimy foreign-born billionaire George Soros?

(Page 237) Liberals have no intention of actually parting with any of their own wealth or lifting a finger to help the poor....Democrats prefer to demonstrate their goodness by giving away your money.

(Page 242) Palin wasn t being attacked because she was a woman; she was being attacked because she was conservative.

(Page 258) Every presidential assassin in the history of the nation has been a liberal----or has had no politics at all. None were right-wingers.
